APPELLATE COURT

DEFENDANTS-APPELLANTS SUPPLEMENTAL MEMORANDUM

The Defendants-Appellants – Alex Jones, Free Speech Systems, LLC; Infowars, LLC; Infowars Health, LLC; Prison Planet TV, LLC – hereby submit their response to the Court’s sua sponte motion to dismiss pursuant to the Court’s May 31, 2022 order.

The Defendants-Appellants have no objection to dismissal of Infowars, LLC; Free Speech Systems, LLC; Infowars Health, LLC; and Prison Planet TV, LLC from this appeal. They concede that they were not aggrieved parties in the first instance, and the Plaintiffs-Appellees have stipulated to the dismissal of Infowars, LLC; Infowars Health LLC; and Prison Planet TV, LLC with prejudice from the underlying case, thus removing them from the underlying proceedings entirely.

Likewise, the bankruptcy proceedings requiring a stay under federal law concluded on June 1, 2022. A stay is no longer necessary under federal law, and Appellant Jones will proceed to prosecute this appeal. To the extent that the Court wishes to analyze the propriety of the stay, federal law required it.

I. Relevant Factual Background:

The Appellees noticed Appellant Alex Jones’ deposition for March 23 and 24, 2022 in Austin, Texas. On March 21, 2022, Jones sought an emergency protective order on the advice of his physician to delay his deposition, but the trial court denied it. See Exhibits A & B. Jones subsequently renewed his motion the following day, and the trial court denied it once again. See Exhibit C & D. Jones did not attend his scheduled depositions on March 23 and 24, 2022 due to his doctor's advice. The trial court held him in contempt, ordered him to pay escalating fines that have since been returned due to Jones' compliance, and is now considering the attorney's fees and costs to award the Appellees. See Exhibit E. Jones appealed the decision on April 1, 2022 via the appeal bearing the above docket number.

On April 18, 2022, Infowars, LLC; Infowars Health, LLC; and Prison Planet TV, LLC ("the Bankruptcy Appellants") filed petitions for chapter 11 bankruptcy in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas. See InfoW, LLC, Case No. 22-60020; IWHealth, LLC, Case No. 22-60021; and Prison Planet TV, LLC, 22-60022. Alex Jones and Free Speech Systems, LLC did not file for bankruptcy. The Bankruptcy Appellants then removed the underlying actions to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Connecticut on April 18, 2022. See Lafferty, et al. v. Jones, et al., Adv. Proc. No. 22-05004; Sherlach v. Jones, et al., Adv. Proc. No. 22-05005; Sherlach, et al. v. Jones, et al., Adv. Proc. No. 22-05006.

Pursuant to stipulations of dismissal with prejudice, the Bankruptcy Appellants withdrew their removals of the underlying actions to federal court on May 31, 2022, and the underlying cases returned to state court on June 1, 2022.

II. Legal Standard:

Practice Book § 66-8 permits the Court to dismiss an appeal on its own motion for lack of jurisdiction or another defect. Lack of aggrievement and mootness implicates subject matter jurisdiction. In re Ava W., 336 Conn. 545, 553 (2020). "[W]hen a decision as to whether a court has subject matter jurisdiction is required, every presumption favoring jurisdiction should be indulged.” Id. at 554 (internal quotations and citations omitted).

III. Argument:

A. The Appellants do not oppose the dismissal of Free Speech Systems, LLC; Infowars, LLC; Infowars Health, LLC; and Prison Planet TV, LLC from this appeal.

At the outset, the Appellants concede that Free Speech Systems, LLC; Infowars, LLC; Infowars Health, LLC; and Prison Planet TV, LLC are not proper parties to this appeal. The undersigned’s inclusion of those entites in this appeal was an inadvertant error made in the haste of coping what their clients believe is an unjust and baseless ruling from the trial court. Since every proceeding in the trial court has focused around the so-called “Jones Defendants” – the above-named entites and Alex Jones, they habitually proceeded according to what has become a habit by multiplicity of filings: They filed the appeal for all of the Appellants. At the time that they did so, they were facing an ominous threat from the trial court. If Jones continued to fail to show up to his deposition, the trial court would strip the Jones Defendants of their right to present certain evidence at the upcoming trial as well as make certain findings of fact that would prejudice all of the Appellants. Thus, while Jones’ contempt directly aggrieved him, the undersigned contemplated indirect grievances to the corporate Appellants as well. Thus, not only was their inclusion of the corporate Appellants a product of habit, but it was also predicated on the reality that the corporate Appellants had been included indirectly in the trial court’s findings. That danger has passed, and the grounds for the corporate Appellants to remain in the appeal no longer remains. Additionally, Infowars, LLC; Infowars Health, LLC; and Prison Planet TV, LLC are no longer parties to the underlying actions by virtue of a stipulated agreement to dismiss them with prejudice from the action. Thus, the Appellants do not oppose the dismissal of the corporate Appellants from this appeal.

B. Staying this appeal under federal law is no longer an issue ripe for adjudication. Even if the Court addresses the validity of the stay, federal law still compelled the stay.

The Appellants submit that the issue of whether this appeal should continue to be stayed is moot. Infowars, LLC; Infowars Health, LLC; and Prison Planet TV, LLC are no longer parties to the underlying actions by virtue of a stipulated agreement to dismiss them with prejudice from the action. On May 31, 2022, they withdrew their removals of the underlying actions to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Connecticut. Any authority for a stay ceased that day. Nothing prevents this Court from proceeding with hearing this appeal now.

To the extent that the Court wishes to visit whether a stay was ever proper in the first place, it is unnecessary, but the Appellants submit that federal law mandated that this appeal be stayed even though Alex Jones did not file for bankruptcy protection. The Appellants initially cited 11 U.S.C. § 362 as the authority for the automatic stay of the proceeding before the Court. Once again, haste resulted in an inadvertent error. § 362 only provides to stays as to a debtor who files for bankruptcy. 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334(b) provides for the removal of actions related to debtors filing for bankruptcy to federal court.

Removal operates exclusively. After removal, state court jurisdiction absolutely ceases and state courts have a duty not proceed any further in the case. Steamship Co. v. Tugman, 106 U.S. 118, 122 (1882). Thus, any subsequent state court proceedings are void ab initio. Id. Even where removal may not be proper, “the state court now loses all jurisdiction after compliance with the removal statute, until there has been a remand.”

Lowe v. Jacobs, 243 F.2d 432, 433 (5th Cir. 1957); see also Rayner v. Ratheon Co., 858 So.2d 132 (Miss. 2003) (same and compiling cases).

Despite the Appellees' disappointment in the removal, the Appellants' removal to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Connecticut stayed proceedings in this Court in conjunction with the automatic stay imposed by 11 U.S.C. § 362. Thus, the stay of this appeal was proper.

CONCLUSION

The Appellants do not oppose the dismissal of Free Speech Systems, LLC; Infowars, LLC; Infowars Health, LLC; and Prison Planet TV, LLC from this lawsuit. They also submit that the issue of the stay is moot and that this appeal should now proceed immediately.¹ Finally, even if the Court chooses to reach the validity of any stay, they still submit that it was required by federal law.

¹ To that end, they will immediately file the preliminary paperwork required by Practice Book § 63-4 after filing this response.

MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER RE: DEPOSITION OF ALEX JONES

The Plaintiffs in the instant case have noticed the deposition of Alex Jones and are prepared to go forward on Wednesday and Thursday of this week in Austin, Texas. Indeed, at least one counsel for the plaintiffs is already in Austin; the undersigned intends to fly to Austin tomorrow. A second deposition of Robert Dew is scheduled in Austin for Friday.

At approximately 3:30 p.m. this afternoon, the undersigned received a telephone call alerting him that Mr. Jones was under the care of a physician for medical conditions that require immediate, and possibly, emergency testing. I spoke with a person representing himself to be a physician: he told me he was a licensed physician, had the qualifications to render an opinion about Mr. Jones' health, and that his opinion was that Mr. Jones should not sit for depositions this week. I asked for a second letter from the physician.

My client has not asked me to disclose the nature of the medical conditions or the identity of the physician. It is my hope that upon receipt of the physician's letter, I can share it with the Court on an ex parte basis.

WHEREFORE, defendants respectfully move this court for an order to postpone the deposition of Alex Jones for a reasonable period of time consistent with his medical condition.

1 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon,
2 everyone. We are on the record in the Lafferty
3 versus Jones matters. The lead Docket No.
4 CV18-6046436. And if plaintiff's counsel can 5 identify themselves for the record.

6 ATTY. MATTEI: Good afternoon, your Honor.
7 This is Chris Mattei on behalf of the plaintiffs, and 8 I'm joined by my colleague Alinor Sterling.

9 THE COURT: Good afternoon. And for the Jones
10 defendants.

11 ATTY. ATKINSON: Good afternoon, your Honor.
12 Cameron Atkinson and Kevin Smith from Pattis & Smith
13 on behalf of the Jones defendants.

14 THE COURT: Good afternoon. And Attorney 15 Cerame.

16 ATTY. CERAME: Yes, your Honor. Attorney Mario
17 Cerame for defendant Genesis Communication Network
18 Incorporated, from Brignole, Bush and Lewis.

19 THE COURT: Thank you. So, I've reviewed the 20 amended motion for protective order and the objection
21 to the motion. Before I hear from, I'm not sure 22 who's speaking for the Jones defendants. Either
23 Attorney Atkinson or Attorney Smith. Is there 24 anything -

25 ATTY. ATKINSON: That would be Attorney Smith, 26 your Honor.

27 THE COURT: Okay.

1 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: I just wanted to make sure there
3 wasn't anything else that had been submitted that I 4 missed.

5 ATTY. SMITH: No, your Honor. Not by the Jones
6 defendants.

7 THE COURT: Okay. So, the ball is in your 8 court, Attorney Smith. And I would be interested in 9 hearing from you as to other restricted activities 10 besides the purported recommendation from the 11 physician, that your client not attend the 12 depositions.

13 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor. I am not aware 14 of any other restricted activities other than to say 15 that he is remaining home under the supervision of 16 this physician as we understand it, pending the 17 results of tests that have been arranged.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And do you have - and I'll 19 hear whatever argument that you might have, but do 20 you have any evidence that the Court can hear?

21 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, we did receive a 22 letter yesterday afternoon here at the office from 23 the physician. Again, that has been - we've been 24 authorized to share that with the Court in an ex 25 parte manner for an in-camera review. And I can 26 provide that to the Court. However, the client thus 27 far as I understand it, has not authorized disclosure

1 to the other side.

2 THE COURT: So, you're looking to submit 3 ex parte the letter from the physician?

4 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor. For your Honor
5 to review in-camera. Similar to a motion for 6 confidential records, disclosure, or something of 7 that nature.

8 THE COURT: All right. And what else. Before I
9 hear from plaintiff's counsel, is there anything else
10 Attorney Smith, that you wanted to mention?

11 ATTY. SMITH: Well, your Honor, I guess I could 12 respond seriatim to some of the claims made by the 13 plaintiffs. First off, we do have a doctor's letter 14 in hand, which we received yesterday afternoon. I 15 myself have not spoken with the doctor, but as 16 Attorney Pattis wrote in the motion, he has. And 17 then we did thereafter receive that letter, which the 18 doctor told us -

19 THE COURT: Attorney Smith, I'm just going to - 20 I'm sorry. I apologize.

21 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: I'm just going to interrupt you for 23 a second. I just want to sort of address first this 24 in-camera submission. Because the last thing -

25 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor.

26 THE COURT: - that I read, sir, was that you -
27 your client had not authorized your firm to disclose

1 the name of the physician or the medical diagnosis.
2 So that's changed since your filing?

3 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, I believe that the 4 filing was that it wasn't - we weren't authorized to 5 disclose that to the opposing parties. However, we 6 have authorization to disclose that to the Court.
7 And I think we asked for that to be done ex parte.
8 I'm not sure when I saw the motion, which I did not 9 draft. I'm not sure that we asked for in particular 10 for an in-camera review, but as I conceptualize it, 11 that's what's being requested.

12 THE COURT: So, I'm going to read - I'm going to 13 read to you Attorney Smith, because we all need to be 14 accurate here.

15 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: The amended motion for protective 17 order that Attorney Pattis filed. I'm just going to 18 read the last full paragraph. My client has not 19 authorized me to disclose the nature of the medical 20 conditions, or the identity of the physician. It is 21 my hope that upon receipt of the physicians' letter, 22 I can share it with the Court on an ex parte basis.
23 So the last filing, just to be accurate, because you 24 need to be accurate with me.

25 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor.

26 THE COURT: The last filing in this official 27 record is that there was no physician's letter and

1 there's no mention of any in-camera review. Correct?

2 ATTY. SMITH: There was no physician's letter
3 and there was no mention of in-camera review.

4 Correct. I did not hear that in that motion, your 5 Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 ATTY. SMITH: However, it said - hope to - I

8 THE COURT: Listen -

9 ATTY. SMITH: - believe it said that after we 10 received it, hope to get authorization to share it 11 with the Court ex parte. And so that's what I'm 12 representing. I guess that's a change since 13 yesterday afternoon when that was filed. We do have 14 the authorization to share that with the Court, 15 ex parte for - the Court obviously would have to 16 review that in order to make its determination.

17 THE COURT: So just so that you're clear, and 18 we're all clear, right? The filing - your filing at 19 that point of your filing, your last filing in the 20 official file, your client had not authorized you to 21 disclose the medical condition or the name of the 22 physician. Putting aside a letter, which had not yet 23 been received. So, are you - correct?

24 ATTY. SMITH: Had not authorized us to disclose 25 that at that point. Yes, your Honor. That is 26 correct.

27 THE COURT: Okay. So what has changed from the

1 filing of your motion for protective order? Are you
2 now - you're now authorized to submit it in-camera.
3 And I haven't heard from plaintiffs' counsel on that 4 yet. And you've disclosed that to plaintiffs'
5 counsel or is this news to them?

6 ATTY. SMITH: This is the first time that I'm 7 having any discussions with plaintiffs' counsel, your 8 Honor. So, I don't know unless - I know Attorney 9 Mattei and Attorney Pattis have had discussions that 10 I'm sort of brought up to speed on. I don't know if 11 they've had any discussions with regard to that. We 12 have received a letter, and we have been authorized 13 to disclose that to the Court.

14 THE COURT: Attorney Mattei are you speaking for 15 the plaintiffs?

16 ATTY. MATTEI: Yes, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Had you heard before now that there 18 was a letter, and that the defendant's were looking 19 to submit it in-camera?

20 ATTY. MATTEI: The only information I had 21 relating to that your Honor, is what was in the 22 amended motion for protective order that was filed
23 yesterday. And that was - I had had a conversation 24 with Attorney Pattis prior to that in which he 25 relayed to me that if he received a letter, he would 26 be looking to submit it ex parte. But I had no 27 information regarding Mr. Jones' authorization prior

1 to just hearing that from Attorney Smith.

2 THE COURT: All right. So, Attorney Smith, for 3 the first time you're now orally requesting an 4 in-camera review, ex parte, of this letter. Correct?

5 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. And are you authorized to 7 disclose even the name of the physician? Or is that 8 something that your client is not even willing to 9 share?

10 ATTY. SMITH: Again, not with the opposition, 11 your Honor. But certainly, that's all available.
12 All that information is contained within that letter, 13 which I'm authorized to disclose to the Court.

14 THE COURT: Okay. And so, this is not something 15 that under seal can be filed. So that it would be 16 confidential. Not released to the public, but just 17 to opposing counsel.

18 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, I don't have that 19 authorization at this point. No.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And so can I ask you Attorney 21 Mattei, if you're able to respond? I know this is 22 the first time you're hearing this. What is your 23 position on an in-camera review?

24 ATTY. MATTEI: We oppose, your Honor, any ex 25 parte in-camera review of the letter that proports to 26 justify Mr. Jones' excusal from his deposition. We 27 think that the procedures that have been followed in

1 this case to date to protect sensitive information, 2 including medical information, should be followed.
3 That would be the filing under seal of any sort of 4 personal protected medical information of Mr. Jones.
5 So that the plaintiffs can then have a full and fair 6 opportunity to oppose the requested postponement, if 7 the Court is in fact going to rely on that letter.
8 And we think that that should address any of Mr.
9 Jones' privacy concerns.

10 THE COURT: All right. So, Attorney Smith, and 11 I'm going to give you as much time as you want. I 12 really don't mean to cut you off, but I - without 13 having - I'm going to see if I can deal with this 14 without the necessity of an in-camera review, because 15 I want to see how detailed this letter is. So, it's 16 from a medical physician who's currently licensed.

17 ATTY. SMITH: As I understand it, your Honor, 18 yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And are you able to say what 20 state the physician is licensed in? Or what states?

21 ATTY. SMITH: I am not, your Honor. Again, we 22 got this letter yesterday afternoon. It doesn't 23 reflect that information. I haven't directly spoken 24 with this physician. That was Attorney Pattis who 25 did so. I'm covering this because he is in-flight.

26 THE COURT: I understand. So, from the letter I 27 cannot glean where the physician is licensed, or if

1 they're currently licensed. Is that correct or 2 incorrect?

3 ATTY. SMITH: That is correct from the letter,
4 your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. So I just want to make 6 sure when you say that, it's correct. So if I were 7 to look at this letter, I could not tell if the 8 physician is currently licensed. True or false?

9 ATTY. SMITH: True.

10 THE COURT: Okay. And I could not tell where 11 the physician practices. True or false?

12 ATTY. SMITH: True.

13 THE COURT: All right. Does it have an address 14 for the physician?

15 ATTY. SMITH: No, your Honor, it does not.

16 THE COURT: Just give me a moment. All right.
17 So, it doesn't address the state the physician is in, 18 whether he's currently licensed and where he's 19 located. In a nutshell.

20 ATTY. SMITH: Correct, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Does it address how long - 22 does it address whether there is currently a 23 patient/physician relationship between Mr. Jones and 24 this physician?

25 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, it does, your Honor.

26 THE COURT: And are you able to state with, I 27 don't want you to get yourself in a pickle. But are

1 you able to state whether the letter indicates that 2 there is a current patient/physician relationship?
3 Or how long that relationship existed? Is it two 4 days or 25 years?

5 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, particular length of 6 time isn't stated. However, it appears to be a 7 current relationship.

8 THE COURT: And are you able to tell me 9 whether - what other restrictions besides the 10 depositions. What other restrictions are in the 11 letter?

12 ATTY. SMITH: Again, your Honor, without getting 13 too deeply into it. There are other restrictions 14 there, including remaining home under doctor's 15 supervision pending testing results.

16 THE COURT: All right. So are there any - can 17 you tell me whether there are any physical 18 restrictions. You know, don't work out, don't 19 exercise? Whether there are any driving 20 restrictions? Whether there are any work or 21 work-related restrictions. Or does this just address 22 the restrictions for the deposition?

23 ATTY. SMITH: Well, your Honor, I think there is 24 a general restriction regarding remaining home.
25 Pending these -

26 THE COURT: I understand, but -

27 ATTY. SMITH: - under his supervision. Pending

1 these test results. The only specific restriction
2 that it addresses, there's nothing like do not drive,
3 anything of that nature. The only specific thing 4 that it addresses would be attending depositions this 5 week.

6 THE COURT: All right. So, I guess what I'm 7 trying to figure out is whether - I don't know if Mr.
8 Jones, for example, has a home gym like many people 9 do. Does it address - so, I understand that the 10 recommendation is remain home. Is it remain home and 11 don't physically exert yourself?

12 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, it doesn't 13 specifically say remain home, don't physically exert 14 yourself. Again, it's more general than that. It 15 could certainly be viewed as encompassing that.

16 THE COURT: And does it address whether Mr.
17 Jones, the recommendation is that he not engage in 18 any work or work-related activities while home? So 19 for example, sometimes we're in this remote venue 20 from home and yet we're working.

21 So does the letter address whether he can work 22 or not? And I say that because as I'm sure you saw 23 in the objection that was filed, there was an 24 indication that Mr. Jones was live on the air for 25 four or five hours yesterday, in addition to other 26 broadcasts.

27 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, it does not address

1 that.

2 THE COURT: Okay. And is there a date and time
3 on that letter?

4 ATTY. SMITH: There is a date at the top. I do 5 not have a time.

6 THE COURT: And the date is what date?

7 ATTY. SMITH: March 21, 2022.

8 THE COURT: And who is the letter addressed to?
9 Were you able to say that? Is it to whom it may 10 concern? Is it to Attorney Pattis -

11 ATTY. SMITH: It is to whom it may concern, your 12 Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. And just tell me how 14 many sentences in the letter?

15 ATTY. SMITH: If you'll hold, I'll count them.
16 Seven full sentences, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: So, if for example, Attorney Smith, 18 the Court wanted to determine whether the letter is 19 genuine. How would the Court do that exactly?

20 ATTY. SMITH: Well, your Honor, I suppose the - 21 what we have as far as genuine would be the testimony 22 of Attorney Pattis. His motion which he filed, and 23 then I suppose - we do know the physician's name. We 24 could ask to have him, I guess provide testimony.

25 THE COURT: Well, I don't have testimony from -

26 ATTY. SMITH: Or we could ask -

27 THE COURT: I don't have a testimony from

1 Attorney Pattis -

2 ATTY. SMITH: Sorry, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: - I have a motion. And -

4 ATTY. SMITH: Yes.

5 THE COURT: So I don't have any - I have no
6 evidence. I have argument in a motion is what I
7 have. And then I have this letter that I have not 8 seen that you're asking for the first time the Court 9 to look at in camera. But - okay. So, continue.

10 ATTY. SMITH: We've been answering questions
11 sort of back and forth, your Honor. When you say 12 continue -

13 THE COURT: I know that you wanted to continue 14 to argue and respond to some of issues that 15 plaintiffs raised in their objection. So, take your 16 time.

17 ATTY. SMITH: Well, your Honor, I know there's a 18 claim here that this is both a threadbare attempt, as 19 well as - I'm not sure if it was a paltry attempt.
20 There were both threadbare and flimsy attempt at 21 delay. Certainly, I believe that opposing counsel is 22 aware that Mr. Jones has appeared for numerous 23 depositions in related cases. So, he had submitted 24 himself before. So, I think that despite the what 25 the opponents might say is suspicious timing here, he 26 does have a history of actually appearing for his 27 depositions and providing testimony.

1 So, we think that's an unfair claim to make 2 here. Again, he's willing to submit this to the 3 Court for its review. The procedures I think that 4 have been suggested by the plaintiffs as being 5 sufficient to seal and maintain confidentiality, our 6 client believes given what's happened in the Texas 7 cases where such materials have been leaked and 8 shared otherwise, I think he's just - lacks faith in 9 those procedures and thus has requested this 10 procedure.

11 THE COURT: Attorney Smith, what is the 12 objection of at a minimum, providing to plaintiff's 13 counsel or filing under seal a redacted letter. For 14 example, removing the name of the medical condition 15 and the name of the doctor? I'm not even sure what 16 the - is it the name of the medical condition that is 17 the issue?

18 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, I think it's both of 19 those concerns. I think it's both of the name of his 20 treating physician, as well as what the medical 21 conditions are. I think he's concerned about both of 22 those things becoming public knowledge.

23 THE COURT: So at a minimum you could exchange a 24 copy of that letter redacting the name of the doctor 25 and redacting the name of the medical condition.

26 ATTY. SMITH: Again, your Honor -

27 THE COURT: - so that the plaintiffs have an -

1 ATTY. SMITH: - at this point, I don't have 2 authorization for that from the client. I can 3 certainly discuss such a procedure with him to redact
4 those things from him. I'm not sure if we redacted 5 things that go towards his - the doctor's name, as 6 well as the various medical conditions, symptoms, 7 etcetera. I don't know that there's really much 8 information that's left there. I'm sorry, I'm 9 getting a message here that says bad network quality.

10 THE COURT: Okay. I'm able to hear you. So, 11 I'm sure all -

12 ATTY. SMITH: Okay. It's still moving on my 13 end.

14 THE COURT: Can you hear me?

15 ATTY. SMITH: That's what I was closing out 16 there.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So, you're only authorized to 18 request an in-camera review or nothing. So you're 19 not authorized to even redact the letter. You want 20 the plaintiffs to see nothing, even if it's redacted 21 without the medical conditions and the name.

22 ATTY. SMITH: That's correct, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. And so I'm going to get 24 back to my original question. How do I determine 25 this as genuine? I mean, I don't - it's just a name.
26 It's got no address. It doesn't have a state. It 27 doesn't have the name of any - how is the Court

1 supposed to - since you have the burden here, how is 2 the Court supposed to address whether it's genuine?

3 ATTY. SMITH: Well, your Honor, again, I suppose 4 we could have testimony. Or if the Court wishes we 5 can attempt to get affidavits, or other means of 6 putting forward evidence to the Court with regard to 7 it. I understand that he is a licensed physician in 8 Florida. And again, I can provide further 9 information to the Court. As I say, this is 10 information that came to us yesterday in the 11 afternoon, I think post 3:30 in the afternoon. I was 12 in court this morning until roughly 11:30. So we go 13 to the hearing with the evidence we have, not perhaps 14 the evidence that we wish we had. And this is what I 15 have at this point. Though I am more than happy to 16 endeavor to get other evidence for the Court.

17 THE COURT: All right. Anything further before 18 I hear from Attorney Mattei?

19 ATTY. SMITH: No, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Do you know when - you should know 21 when the - when your client last saw this physician?
22 Was last examined -

23 ATTY. SMITH: I believe he remains at home under 24 his supervision, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: No - no, I'm sorry. When he last 26 was either examined by the physician or treated by 27 the physician or consulted with the physician. When 1 was that last occurrence?

2 ATTY. SMITH: I understand that was as recently 3 as yesterday based on this letter.

4 THE COURT: I guess I'm just trying to reconcile
5 the information that's been provided to the Court,
6 which was essentially yesterday at 3:30. Mr. Jones
7 contacted Attorney Pattis indicating that he was with 8 his doctor. I'm trying to reconcile that. That 9 indication that he was with his doctor at 3:30 when 10 he contacted Attorney Pattis, along with the 11 plaintiff's opposition, which indicates that for four 12 hours or so, at that same time he was actually 13 broadcasting live his show.

14 So, I'm just trying to figure out how - it just 15 doesn't make sense to me that he's with his doctor in 16 the middle of a live broadcast. And you're telling 17 me on the one hand he's supposed to stay at home, and 18 he's restricted. But on the other hand, I have a 19 citation, a formal citation to a broadcast, which 20 suggests that he actually was working all day 21 yesterday. So I'm just trying to reconcile this 22 based on what you've submitted.

23 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor. I guess two 24 things. I'm not sure that that's anything more than 25 the same argument that you have from us regarding the 26 letter and as far as citations in their opposition.
27 But moving aside from that, I believe that while he

1 was working, to the extent that that is working,
2 while he was broadcasting, if he was broadcasting, I 3 believe he was under the supervision of his 4 physician.

5 THE COURT: So, you're taking the Court's time, 6 right? And having - we did this on an emergency 7 basis, and I'm not sure that I'm getting the 8 information straight. But I don't see why there's 9 any reason that any of this information should not be 10 provided to the Court. So, to your knowledge, and if 11 you don't know, we can take a recess and you sure can 12 find out. To your knowledge, when did your client
13 broadcast live yesterday, if at all? Do you know 14 that information, or is that something you can find 15 out? Because the suggestion was -

16 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, as I understand it, he 17 was broadcasting at various points yesterday.

18 THE COURT: So was he broadcasting live after 19 this purported recommendation from the doctor that he 20 not attend his deposition? I'm just trying to figure 21 out. Is the only restriction basically, you can - 22 you're not restricted physically. You're not 23 restricted from driving. You can broadcast live, but 24 you just can't attend that deposition.

25 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, that I'm not sure. I 26 don't think that when the letter was sent to us that 27 it - sat to delineate exactly what all of the 1 restrictions might be.

2 THE COURT: So, he's permitted to - there's no 3 restriction on his broadcasting live from home, for 4 example, based on your review of that letter.

5 ATTY. SMITH: Based upon my review of that 6 letter, I would say that so long as it doesn't 7 exacerbate and doesn't conflict with what the results 8 of the pending tests were.

9 THE COURT: So to answer the question, there's 10 no restriction on his broadcasting live from home, 11 but he is - the doctor's restricting him or 12 recommending a restriction on his deposition.

13 ATTY. SMITH: Yes. No restriction listed here 14 noted regarding any broadcasting from home, but 15 simply not to attend deposition this week.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So, can you address that 17 issue for me? How do I reconcile that? How does 18 it - why is it reasonable in any way, shape, or form, 19 for a doctor to only restrict a deposition, but not 20 restrict any work or work-related activities? How 21 does that make sense to you? You can broadcast live 22 from home for four hours straight, or throughout the 23 day, but you can't sit for questions and answers 24 under oath. Can you address that if you can?

25 ATTY. SMITH: I guess because when he goes, at 26 least looking at this letter, when he would go to a 27 deposition, I don't suppose he could be - he could

1 remain at home under the supervision of the doctor.

2 THE COURT: Is the doctor at home with him?

3 ATTY. SMITH: I believe that the doctor has been 4 with him, and he has remained under the doctor's 5 supervision, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Physically with the doctor.

7 ATTY. SMITH: As I understand it. Yes, your 8 Honor.

9 THE COURT: And what do you base that on?

10 ATTY. SMITH: I base that upon, again, without 11 disclosing, I base that upon the information that I 12 have here within the letter regarding the physician.
13 As well as my knowledge of the client's whereabouts 14 and who he has been in the company of.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So is there any reason then, 16 if the physician is accompanying him during the 17 broadcast and at his home, why can't the physician 18 accompany him to the deposition? Wouldn't be the 19 first time that happened.

20 ATTY. SMITH: That I don't know, your Honor.
21 But I don't suppose that that would be remaining 22 home, and we still have the pending test results.
23 Again, these questions are probably not best put to 24 me, but put to the physician himself.

25 THE COURT: Put it -

26 ATTY. SMITH: Whose opinions these are.

27 THE COURT: - but you haven't - Attorney Smith,

1 you haven't offered the - you have offered - you
2 haven't offered the testimony of the physician, so
3 I'm trying to get from you what little information 4 that is available. So, if the physician were to 5 remain with him at home, he could be deposed?

6 ATTY. SMITH: I don't know, your Honor. I would 7 have to check with him to see.

8 THE COURT: All right. Anything further?

9 ATTY. SMITH: No, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you for being 11 patient with the questions, Attorney Smith. Attorney 12 Mattei.

13 ATTY. MATTEI: Thank you, your Honor. Your 14 Honor, this whole thing to me, and I'm choosing my 15 words carefully here, is extraordinarily disturbing.
16 Mr. Jones appears to be on the air right now 17 broadcasting his live show, the Alex Jones Show, as 18 he does every day. I checked ten to 15 minutes ago.
19 He appeared to be on the air. I was just informed 20 that among the articles he cited on the air, was an 21 article that you can tell from the broadcast was 22 printed out today at 9:17 a.m.

23 So, while I sympathize to some extent with this 24 position Attorney Smith is in, not having been 25 involved in this case before. What is clear is that 26 this notion that Mr. Jones is responsibly complying 27 with some unidentified physician's recommendation,

1 that he be at home under his physicians' care, is 2 completely bogus. Dropped on the Court and the 3 plaintiff's less than two days before he's to be 4 deposed for the first time, in a case that's been 5 pending since 2018.

6 So, although the plaintiff's do not have access 7 to this letter, it seems obvious, both given the 8 course of conduct in this case, the fact that there 9 is no evidence before the Court, other than 10 statements of counsel, and the representation I just 11 made based on my personal knowledge of having looked 12 at the Infowars Website. And I'd encourage Attorney 13 Atkinson perhaps to pull it up on his computer while 14 we're sitting here right now.

15 That this is a dishonest attempt by Mr. Jones to 16 avoid being put under oath, and perhaps to some 17 extent to disrupt the plaintiff's preparation for his 18 deposition, because we were forced to respond to this 19 yesterday. We're on this hearing now. There's the 20 prospect of testimony from this doctor, all while 21 we're supposed to be preparing for his deposition.

22 So, in our view there is simply no basis for the 23 Court to make specific findings that Mr. Jones has 24 some medical issue that's going to prevent him from 25 sitting for a deposition while he is currently on the 26 air raising money for his legal defense. Yesterday 27 he was claiming during his broadcast that he's going

1 to fight these lawsuits to the end. I invite him to 2 do that by showing up at his deposition tomorrow.

3 THE COURT: All right. So, Attorney Smith, have 4 you lodged the - for Appellate purposes, have you
5 lodged the letter? You need to perfect your record
6 here. Have you lodged the letter from the physician
7 with the Court?

8 ATTY. SMITH: No, your Honor, we have not lodged
9 the record with the Court. We were waiting today's 10 hearing.

11 THE COURT: All right. Well, I can't force you 12 to do anything. But if you are - want to make this 13 an appealable issue, don't you need to - doesn't it 14 need to be submitted somehow? Are you intending to 15 do that or not?

16 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor -

17 THE COURT: I mean -

18 ATTY. SMITH: Again, we had authorization to 19 disclose this to the Court for an ex parte.

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 ATTY. SMITH: In which case we would submit it 22 for such an in-camera review to the Court as a Court 23 Exhibit.

24 THE COURT: Well, wouldn't it have to be lodged
25 and sealed? I don't just get it as an in-camera 26 exhibit and then let it fly. It would have to be 27 made part of the official Court file for appellate

1 purposes.

2 ATTY. SMITH: It would, your Honor. It was 3 unclear to us, I believe, whether or not the Court 4 would agree to an ex parte review, an in-camera
5 review of it. If the Court is inclined to do so,
6 then yes, we will certainly lodge it with the Court
7 for that and ask that it be made a Courts Exhibit.

8 THE COURT: All right. So, here's what we're 9 going to do. You can lodge it with the Court now by 10 emailing it now to Attorney Ferraro, and he will be 11 in charge of lodging it with the Court sealed. And I
12 am over objection going to conduct the in-camera 13 review. But we now have a good appellate record. We 14 will reconvene at 3 o'clock.

15 So, I want that emailed now so I have time to 16 read it. And when we come back at 3 o'clock, 17 Attorney Smith, you will represent as an officer of 18 the court whether or not Mr. Jones is currently on 19 the air as Mr. Mattie suggested. Do you understand?
20 You're muted.

21 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, I understand.

22 THE COURT: All right. So, we will take a 23 recess. I will await that document, and we will 24 reconvene at 3 p.m.

25 (Recess. Resumed.)

26 THE COURT: All right. We're back on the 27 record. I did review the letter. Thank you,

1 Attorney Smith. You moved very quickly with that.
2 And Mr. Ferraro, I'll direct you again to just make 3 sure you lodge that with the Court as sealed, so that 4 it is not accessible, but it is available for an 5 Appellate record.

6 So, Attorney Smith, you were going to report 7 back to the Court as to whether Mr. Jones was 8 broadcasting live before?

9 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor. It appears to me 10 that he is broadcasting.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And I did not ask you, but I 12 am going to assume based on what you've told me, that 13 he is broadcasting live from his home. Is that 14 correct? To your knowledge.

15 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, I'm not sure where he 16 is broadcasting from exactly. I can't tell that from 17 viewing the broadcast. I can see him on the live 18 broadcast.

19 ATTY. MATTEI: Your Honor, I can tell having 20 watched Mr. Jones over many hours, that he is 21 broadcasting from the studio that he always 22 broadcasts from, which does not appear to be his 23 home.

24 THE COURT: All right. So - okay. So because 25 the, obviously part of the recommendation from this 26 individual, is that he remain at home. So we are 27 going to pass it. All right. We'll pass the matter

1 for five minutes. Attorney Smith, you are going to 2 come back, and you are going to report to me whether 3 that broadcast during our argument, before we took 4 this last break, was from his home, which is what the 5 indication is that he's confined to, or whether it's 6 from his studio's. All right. So, we'll take a 7 five-minute recess.

8 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, I will endeavor to do 9 so. I'm not sure that I can get a hold of him in 10 five minutes.

11 THE COURT: I have faith, Attorney Smith, that 12 you can contact whoever you need to contact. Whether 13 that's Attorney Pattis, or whoever else from the 14 defendant's has knowledge. It shouldn't even take 15 you five minutes to find out whether that broadcast 16 was from his home or from his studio.

17 Because what's being presented to the Court is 18 argument that he is remaining at home and needs to 19 remain at home, and he can't leave his home. And God 20 help everyone if in fact that broadcast was from his 21 studio, in light of these arguments. All right. So, 22 we'll pass the matter.

23 (Recess. Resumed.)

24 THE COURT: All right. We're back on the 25 record. Attorney Smith.

26 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor. I reached out to 27 get in touch with Mr. Jones as well as Attorney

1 Pattis. I believe Attorney Pattis must be in the air
2 because it goes immediately to voicemail. And I 3 don't get a response to text, which is unusual for 4 him. He usually responds to me. And I - the number 5 that I called for Mr. Jones is not available, not 6 taking calls right now.

7 I don't have any way other than those two means
8 to get in touch with Mr. Jones. So, I - we called a 9 number of times. I am simply unable to get in touch 10 with him in this short amount of time.

11 THE COURT: Are you troubled, Attorney Smith, by 12 the suggestion from Attorney Mattie that the live 13 broadcast that was going on during your argument, 14 where you were arguing that he was at home, and that 15 his physician was recommending that he be - that he 16 stay at home. Are you troubled by Attorney Mattei's 17 representation that the broadcast appears to be from 18 his studio and not his home?

19 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, I suppose I would be 20 troubled by anybody not following their physician's 21 advice, if that is what is the case here. Again, my 22 argument is that what this letter submitted to us 23 would indicate, was that he was to remain home under 24 his doctor's supervision. I have no way to enforce 25 anybody to follow that. If they are not following 26 that, I would be concerned.

27 I'm also equally concerned by an invocation that

1 God help everyone, depending upon what should happen
2 here, frankly. I think that turns the heat up way 3 beyond what is necessary in this matter.

4 THE COURT: Attorney Smith, I would think that 5 you would be as concerned as the Court, and as 6 troubled by the Court, given what information has 7 been given to the Court. So what we have is a letter
8 that you have submitted that indicates that Mr. Jones 9 remains at home. That is what the letter says that 10 he remains at home. Correct? He is - on my advice, 11 he is remaining home under my supervision. So you 12 have submitted for an in-camera ex parte review, this 13 letter that you're not - you're refusing to make 14 available to the other side that says Mr. Jones is 15 remaining home.

16 Your argument is that he cannot attend the 17 deposition because his doctor is recommending that he 18 remain home. That he must remain home based on the 19 doctor's recommendation. That is what you're telling 20 the Court in a nutshell. He must remain home based 21 on the doctor's recommendation.

22 And I have Attorney Mattei representing to the 23 Court, that he's broadcasting live from a studio 24 during this argument, that in fact he is not at home.
25 This is very serious in the Courts' opinion. You're 26 making representations to the Court and submitting 27 documents to the Court that indicates he is remaining

1 at home, but I have the lawyer on the other side
2 saying, he's not at home, that's his studio. What 3 would you suggest that the Court do with this 4 situation?

5 ATTY. SMITH: I would suggest that the Court
6 perhaps have a hearing and have some testimony 7 regarding these conflicting versions and withhold the 8 decision. Or else, if the Court is so inclined, then 9 the Court should rule on the motion for protective 10 order.

11 THE COURT: And you're not at all troubled by 12 the fact that you have submitted a letter from the 13 Court that indicates his remaining at home, and one 14 of the other lawyers in this case has suggested to 15 the Court, that in fact he is not at home? That's 16 what the issue is here. The issue is, here in a 17 nutshell, that he can't attend these depositions, 18 he's at home. He must remain at home. He is at 19 home.

20 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, again, I've submitted
21 to the Court a letter from a physician treating him 22 who says he is to remain at home under supervision, 23 that is dated as of yesterday.

24 Again, I have not control over whether or not 25 somebody is following that doctor's orders. I am not 26 in Texas. I have tried to contact my client in order 27 to confirm for the Court where he is at this very 1 moment.

2 THE COURT: Attorney Smith, I'm not faulting you 3 personally in any way, shape, or form. You're just 4 doing your job. But what you did was you submitted
5 ex parte information to the Court, which doesn't say 6 recommend - it doesn't just say recommend, it says he 7 is remaining home. So I have you submitting this 8 ex parte information, so the Court is told he is 9 remaining home. It's really not complicated. The 10 Court's told, he is remaining home, and then I have 11 Attorney Mattei noting that there's a live broadcast 12 during these arguments, and it appears, in fact, that 13 he's at the studio and that he is not remaining home.

14 ATTY. SMITH: Understood, your Honor. I'm 15 trying to confirm where he is. I have never been to 16 those studios. I cannot look at it and see and tell 17 where he is. I am endeavoring to get that 18 information for the Court. I'm providing to the 19 Court all the information that I have.

20 THE COURT: I would think that you would have a 21 duty and an obligation, given the evidence that you
22 submitted to the Court by way of this ex parte letter 23 that indicates he is remaining at home. And by 24 virtue of your arguments that he cannot attend the 25 deposition because he is supposed to remain at home.
26 If in fact the evidence that you submitted, the 27 letter that says he is remaining at home is

1 inaccurate, wouldn't you have an obligation to 2 correct that? That was what I was trying to give you
3 an opportunity to do -

4 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, I -

5 THE COURT: - because that is what you submitted 6 that he was remaining -

7 ATTY. SMITH: I would. But as I say, five 8 minutes was insufficient for me to do so. I think 9 it's insufficient for anybody to do so. I don't sit 10 and watch Infowars, frankly, I don't watch Infowars.
11 I am here to represent my client. I am presenting 12 the evidence that I have. I would say this letter is 13 dated yesterday, is remaining home. I will seek to 14 get something that is updated for the Court. It 15 appears, according to Mr. Mattei's representations, 16 which are being accepted not as simply argument, but 17 as evidence. Whereas, you know - we are not afforded 18 the same. That here we are. I am happy to get as 19 much information as I can for the Court, but I, 20 again, the first news that I had that he was 21 broadcasting live, was when Attorney Mattei asked for 22 us to turn on our television or computer or however 23 somebody was looking at it -

24 THE COURT: Attorney Smith, I think the reason 25 that I took the recess to give you an opportunity to 26 respond so that you could actually represent to the 27 Court, and I was willing to take your word whether he

1 was broadcasting from home, or whether he was 2 broadcasting from studio. I certainly did not - I
3 reported what Attorney Mattei said. Whether he's 4 accurate or not, I don't know. I was giving you the 5 opportunity to find that out, and to correct what the 6 Court has been led to believe.

7 ATTY. SMITH: Which I would love to do, your 8 Honor. However, as I said before, I did not think 9 five minutes would be sufficient to do so. It did 10 not prove sufficient to do so.

11 THE COURT: Attorney Cerame, did you want to be 12 heard?

13 ATTY. CERAME: Well, your Honor, I would just 14 note I did look at the livestream, the stream that's 15 going on right now. I couldn't verify whether Mr.
16 Jones was speaking in front of a green screen or not.
17 Some of it's prerecorded. It's plainly prerecorded,
18 and some of it - I'm not - may be or may not be. I 19 can't tell. So, that's all I have to say, your 20 Honor. Otherwise, you know, as an officer of the 21 court, I make that representation. I have no other 22 dog in this race.

23 THE COURT: Thank you. Attorney Smith, did you 24 have anything else to add?

25 ATTY. SMITH: No, your Honor.

26 THE COURT: Attorney Mattei, anything else to 27 add?

1 ATTY. MATTEI: Your Honor, as we have been 2 arguing here, we have been taking screen shots of Mr.
3 Jones' live broadcast. And if it would be helpful to 4 the Court to make its own determination about whether 5 Mr. Jones is in his studio that he is normally in, or 6 his home, we can present those to the Court.

7 I am happy to make the representation that Mr.
8 Jones is broadcasting from the same space that I
9 always see him broadcasting from. And he often 10 refers to it as being in studio. So, you know - and 11 then I would just your Honor, if you want further 12 argument on the motion for protective order itself, 13 I'm prepared to do that. But I don't know that 14 that's what you're asking for at this point.

15 THE COURT: All right. So on the issue of 16 whether the Court has been misled on whether or not 17 Mr. Jones is remaining at home. Attorney Smith, I 18 have no doubt that you will take the necessary steps.
19 And I mean this. I have no doubt you'll take the 20 necessary steps to advise the Court, if in fact the 21 Court has been misled by your argument, and by the 22 statement in the letter that Mr. Jones is remaining 23 at home. Okay. So I leave that to you for another 24 day.

25 If it does not need correction, then it doesn't 26 need correction. But I - you'll look at the rules of 27 professional conduct and you'll do I'm sure, I have

1 no doubt, you'll do what is appropriate and necessary 2 in that regard. Okay. So, now I'll get to the 3 substance of the actual motion.

4 ATTY. SMITH: Your Honor, just for purposes of 5 the record. The letter that we submitted, was that 6 marked as a Courts Exhibit?

7 THE COURT: I - we can mark it as a Courts
8 Exhibit, but it's sealed and lodged with the Court.
9 So, I leave that to Mr. Ferraro's discretion as to 10 how to handle it. It's not - if it's a Court 11 Exhibit, it's got to be sealed, but it's got to 12 remain I suppose lodged.

13 THE CLERK: Yes, your Honor. It's my 14 understanding that if it is a Court Exhibit, it is 15 then available to the public.

16 THE COURT: Well, that's what I'm trying -

17 THE CLERK: I will check on that before I - we 18 do either way lodged. I mean it's in an envelope 19 sealed now in my possession, and it will stay that 20 way locked in the exhibit vaults until we can figure 21 out which is the proper way to do it so that it's not 22 available to the public.

23 THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Ferraro, I leave 24 that to you to work with counsel on to make sure that 25 we've done it properly, according to the rules of 26 practice.

27 THE CLERK: Yes, your Honor.

1 THE COURT: And if we could make it a Court, an 2 actual Court Exhibit without making it available to 3 the public, because it does contain medical 4 information, then we'll do that to protect the 5 privacy. And if we can't, I think for appellate 6 purposes we actually - we should have a good 7 appellate record either way. All right.

8 So, I would say that the movant's have submitted 9 no credible evidence upon which the Court can 10 properly enter an order postponing the deposition of 11 Mr. Jones. I have to say, I have no idea as to 12 whether the letter that I did review in-camera is 13 genuine. Nor do I have any way of knowing whether 14 the author of the letter is currently licensed. I 15 have been called upon to review records for 16 purposes - similar to this for purposes of trial 17 continuance or deposition continuances related to 18 either a party or a lawyer, countless times.

19 But I have never seen one as bare bones as this 20 one. This one did not have any letterhead. It had 21 no address on it. It just has no indication of 22 whether the doctor is a sole practitioner. Whether 23 he's in a group. It doesn't indicate what kind of 24 doctor it is. There's absolutely no description of 25 his practice. The Court has no information besides a 26 name.

27 And there's been no evidence besides that

1 in-camera letter. The letter fails to address the 2 length of the patient/physician relationship. It
3 does not say that the physician examined Jones or 4 evaluated Jones. Nothing else was submitted along 5 the lines of a bill or doctors notes. Any other 6 evidence like that. And this is not actually a 7 medical record, it is just this bare bones note.
8 With respect to the reasonableness of the 9 recommendation that Jones not attend his deposition, 10 the only the restriction really is, is that he is 11 remaining home and that he should not attend the 12 deposition.

13 The letter doesn't address any other 14 restrictions that one would expect to see, such as 15 limitations or restrictions on his physical activity 16 or physical exertion. Restrictions related to 17 driving. Restrictions related to work or work-
18 related activities. And there is really absolutely 19 no explanation at all as to why the recommendation 20 that Mr. Jones remain at home. There's no basis for 21 it, except saying, on my advice he is remaining home 22 under my supervision.

23 And it appears to the Court unreasonable to 24 suggest that Jones can broadcast live for hours.
25 Whether it's from home remotely, or from the studio.
26 But that he cannot sit for a deposition. And I say 27 that because in connection with motions that were

1 filed several years back in this matter, the Court
2 was called upon to review portions of Jones'
3 broadcast. And I would say that at least the 4 portions of the broadcast that the Court was required
5 to review in connection with the motions, the Jones 6 demeanor during those broadcasts were anything but 7 calm.

8 So it is not - the Court can't reconcile the 9 nature of at least the broadcast the Court saw, along 10 with a deposition. It just doesn't make sense to the 11 Court that you can broadcast in such a manner, but 12 you can't sit for a professional deposition with 13 lawyers. And I again, leave to counsel to address 14 the issue of the letter from this purported 15 physician, which states, quote, on my advice he is 16 remaining home under my supervision.

17 And counsel's argument that he can't attend the 18 deposition because he needs to stay at home, and the 19 suggestion from opposing counsel that Mr. Jones is 20 broadcasting from his studio. And what appears to be 21 agreement by everyone involved, that he has been 22 broadcasting live today, including during the 23 arguments that we've had.

24 So, for these reasons the motion for protective 25 order is denied. Certainly, anyone can continue to 26 file whatever motions they need to file on any of 27 these issues. And I leave it to counsel to discuss

1 themselves the logistics of the deposition, along the 2 lines of having the physician, assuming he is a 3 currently licensed physician in proximity and 4 available during the deposition on premises, so that 5 should there be any issues, his physician would be 6 available.

7 All right. Anything else today?

8 ATTY. MATTEI: Your Honor, I would just say 9 since -

10 ATTY. SMITH: Yes, your Honor. With regard to 11 the Court's ordering me to advise the Court whether 12 or not the Court has been misled. What form does the 13 Court wish that advisement to take? Should that be a 14 letter to the Court, as well as to everybody, akin to 15 something in Federal Court? I simply have never done 16 such a thing.

17 THE COURT: Attorney Smith, I - when I say I
18 have no doubt that you're going to do the right 19 thing, I don't say that lightly. So I know that if 20 anything needs to be corrected, I know you're going 21 to do the right thing and correct it.

22 My suggestion would be that it be done in the 23 official file because what we have in this official 24 file is the lodged document, and we also have as part 25 of the record, your argument. So if there needs to 26 be a correction, and if in fact Mr. Jones is not at 27 home and has not been at home, then I think it needs

1 to be done in the official file. Okay. And if it
2 doesn't need to be done, that's fine. Or even if you
3 want to file a document that indicates that in fact, 4 he was home, just to clarify it. You can do that as 5 well. Nothing stops you from doing that. Okay.

6 ATTY. SMITH: Okay.

7 ATTY. MATTEI: Your Honor, if I could just for 8 the record and since Attorney Pattis is not here.
9 The - if Mr. Jones wishes to be accompanied to the 10 deposition tomorrow by his physician, the plaintiffs 11 have no objection to that. And I did want to make 12 clear that the deposition is scheduled to commence 13 tomorrow at 9 a.m. Central, at a location that Mr.
14 Pattis has been advised here in Austin. And so if 15 that could be communicated to him as well. Thank 16 you.

17 THE COURT: All right. Anything further?

18 ATTY. MATTEI: No, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. We're adjourned.

20 ATTY. CERAME: Thank you, your Honor.

21 (Court adjourned.)

(The following is an excerpt of the proceedings:)

THE COURT: Thank you.

All right. So I'm going to order a transcript of the following remarks and when it is prepared, I will sign it and place it in the file.

So with respect to depositions in general, under our rules of practice, particularly Practice Book Section 13-29 Subsection (c) Subsection (2), the plaintiffs were not required to subpoena Mr. Jones. The plaintiffs properly issued a notice of deposition on Mr. Jones, a defendant, which notice compelled him to appear for a deposition in the county he resides or within 30 miles of his residence and that was done properly.

On Tuesday, March 22nd, the Court, after argument on the record, denied the Jones defendants' motion for protective order that had been filed earlier that day and that had asked the Court to postpone Mr. Jones' depositions which were scheduled to take place on Wednesday the 23rd and Thursday the 24th. The Jones defendants were given an immediate opportunity to argue their motion the same day it was filed and both the evidence that was submitted and the argument that was made indicated that Mr. Jones was remaining at home under his doctor's supervision when, in fact, he was working at his studios and 1 broadcasting his show.

2 Additionally, the Court painstakingly explained
3 on the record that its in-camera review evaluating 4 the doctor's note submitted by the Jones defendants 5 revealed that the note fell far short. Despite that 6 ruling, Mr. Jones did not appear for his deposition 7 on Wednesday, March 23rd.

8 In denying the Jones defendants' motion, the 9 Court clearly stated that while the logistics of the 10 depositions were left to the parties, the parties 11 could consider having Mr. Jones' physician on the 12 premises during the deposition.

13 On Wednesday, March 23rd, following the filing 14 of the plaintiffs' motion for order, which was filed 15 that day, and the Jones defendants' objection, which 16 was also filed that day, the Court, again on the 17 record after a hearing from counsel, ordered Mr.
18 Jones to appear for his deposition on Thursday, March 19 24th.

20 Despite these rulings from the Court, Mr. Jones
21 did not appear for his deposition on Wednesday, March 22 23rd and he did not appear for his deposition on 23 Thursday, March 24th. Immediately following the 24 hearing on the record on March 23rd, the Court also 25 ordered Mr. Jones, in writing, to appear for his 26 March 24th deposition stating, "The defendant, Alex 27 Jones, is ordered to produce himself tomorrow for his

1 duly noticed deposition as he has not submitted 2 additional evidence for the Court to evaluate on the 3 issue of his alleged medical conditions."

4 Additionally, after the parties filed briefs
5 relating to the plaintiffs' request for a capias, the 6 Court issued a second written order on March 23rd 7 declining to issue a capias at that time, indicating 8 that Mr. Jones would be in contempt of the Court's 9 order should he not appear for his deposition on 10 March 24th and setting a briefing schedule with 11 respect to the other sanctions requested by the 12 plaintiff.

13 Furthermore, after an additional motion for 14 protective order was filed by the Jones defendants at 15 the end of the day on Wednesday, March 23rd, the 16 Court, after evaluating the motions and affidavits, 17 denied the motion in writing and made clear that the 18 Court-ordered deposition was to proceed the next day, 19 although he would be excused from the deposition if 20 he was hospitalized. No such evidence of 21 hospitalization or, in fact, any other evidence has 22 been submitted to the Court, although the motions 23 that have been filed are replete with references to 24 Mr. Jones either broadcasting live from his studio, 25 recording shows, or calling into shows during the 26 time period in question.

27 So while the parties and counsel abided by the

1 Court-ordered deadlines with respect to the filing of 2 their briefs, Mr. Jones, as I said, did not appear
3 for his deposition on Thursday, March 24th.

4 So this hearing today is dealing with the 5 plaintiffs' motions relating to Mr. Jones' failure to 6 appear for his depositions on March 23rd and March 7 24th despite all these Court orders and Jones 8 defendants' objections thereto.

9 Now, I have to note, at this point we're maybe 10 16 or 17 weeks away from jury selection and Mr. Jones 11 has not even been deposed. So we're four years into 12 this case and the Court has repeatedly entered new 13 deadlines for witness depositions and the newest 14 deadline, as far as I know, is April 8th in this long 15 series of modifying scheduling orders for 16 depositions.

17 I have to say that due to these repeated 18 extensions, the several prior trial dates, as well as 19 the age of the case, the existing trial date, which 20 is jury selection on August 2nd and evidence on 21 September 1st, is a firm trial date and parties and 22 counsel should plan accordingly.

23 The Court's authority here is rooted not only in 24 Practice Book Section 13-14, but the Court also has 25 inherent sanctioning power. With respect to the 26 issue of contempt, the Court finds by clear and 27 convincing evidence that the defendant, Alex Jones,

1 willfully and in bad faith violated without 2 justification several clear Court orders requiring 3 his attendance at his depositions on March 23rd and 4 March 24th. That is, the Court finds that Mr. Jones 5 intentionally failed to comply with the orders of the 6 Court and that there was no adequate factual basis to 7 explain his failures to obey the orders of the Court.

8 Now, while the Court has adjudicated Mr. Jones 9 in contempt, Mr. Jones himself has the ability to 10 purge the contempt and Mr. Jones is on notice that he 11 has the ability to purge the contempt and the Court 12 has the power to reduce the fines that it is going to 13 impose once the contempt has been purged as follows:
14 The contempt will be purged when Mr. Jones completes 15 two full days of depositions at the office of 16 plaintiffs' counsel in Bridgeport. Mr. Jones is to 17 pay conditional fines of $25,000 each weekday
18 beginning on Friday, April 1st, increasing by $25,000 19 per weekday payable to the Clerk of the Court in 20 Waterbury and it will be suspended on each day that 21 Mr. Jones successfully completes a full day's 22 deposition where Mr. Jones has given all counsel a 23 minimum of 24 hours' notice of his availability to 24 sit for that particular deposition.

25 So for example, if Mr. Jones' counsel this 26 afternoon informs counsel that Mr. Jones will sit for 27 his deposition on Friday -- that's sufficient notice

1 to the parties, that's 24 hours -- and if he 2 successfully appears and sits for his deposition on 3 Friday, there will be no fine.

4 Another example: If Mr. Jones' counsel this
5 afternoon informs counsel that Mr. Jones will sit for 6 his deposition on Tuesday, April 5th and he does so 7 successfully, the fine will be $25,000 for this 8 Friday, April 1st. There will be no fine on Saturday
9 or Sunday and there will be a $50,000 fine on Monday 10 for a total fine of $75,000 to that point and so on.

11 The last day for the fines will be April 15th
12 and that then gives Mr. Jones an opportunity to purge 13 the contempt by producing himself for two full days
14 of deposition by April 15th. The Court recognizes 15 that this fine, while a conditional fine, is also 16 coercive, but finds that it is reasonable and 17 necessary in this matter and again points out that 18 Mr. Jones himself has the opportunity to complete his 19 deposition and then request reimbursement of the 20 fines that the Court has imposed.

21 The Court declines to issue a capias, although 22 it recognizes that the plaintiffs may pursue that 23 with the Texas Courts if they so desire..

24 The Court also finds that the plaintiffs are 25 entitled to fees and costs in connection with the 26 cancelled depositions that was requested in earlier 27 motions and the details of which were provided in the

1 briefs that were just filed today, so as I indicated 2 earlier, for that reason, the Court will address the 3 amount of the fees and costs that will be awarded at 4 the next hearing giving the Jones defendants adequate 5 time to respond.

6 It is clear, however, that the plaintiffs here
7 simply want and are entitled to the deposition of Mr.
8 Jones and that Mr. Jones has continued to attempt to 9 deliberately disregard the Court's orders and 10 attempts to manipulate the Court process. While 11 paying the fees and costs will reimburse the 12 plaintiffs for the costs incurred in attempting to 13 procure Mr. Jones' deposition, it is not a substitute 14 for his testimony. As such, should Mr. Jones not 15 complete his two full days of depositions by April 16 15, the Court finds that the preclusion of evidence, 17 that is, preventing Mr. Jones from offering evidence 18 which would include calling witnesses, cross-19 examining witnesses, and the like, and adverse 20 inferences, that is, the establishment of certain 21 facts adverse to the Jones defendants, would be an 22 order as a remedy for non-compliance, the extent of 23 which is a very significant issue and would require 24 extensive briefing and argument from counsel.

25 That is not something, hopefully, that will have 26 to be addressed because Mr. Jones has the ability by 27 April 15th to purge himself of the contempt and avoid

1 any issue, preclusion, or adverse inferences. So if 2 and when that becomes an issue, if he has not 3 submitted to his two full days of deposition by April 4 15th, then the Court will set up a briefing schedule
5 to address issue preclusion and adverse inferences.
6 So really, it will be up to Mr. Jones.
